Menominee beat Kawaga by Robbie Applebaum

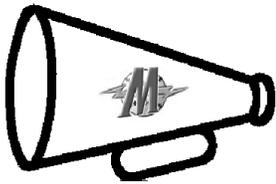

It was a bright sunny day at Camp Menominee on Saturday 5th July when the counselors from camp Kawaga rolled in. The counselor team was warming up with the leadership of JONAH WEISS and DAVID BLECHMAN. The campers came pouring out of the Mess Hall to cheer the Menominee men on. The mighty green got off to a slow start, but with the great defense and serving by DAVID MIZOCK and TERRY "TJ" JONES, we won the first game 25-19. The second game was a nail-biter. JACOB "BALLS" BARSTACK came out of nowhere and put up some huge blocks, shutting down ANDREW BLECHMAN. TAYLOR BEAUSEIGNEUR came into serve as well and did a fantastic job. It came down to the last few points, when ROBBIE APPLEBAUM went to serve. After winning the first point, Menominee only needed one more point to win. As the serve went over, the green team were feeling very confident. Kawaga ended up putting the ball right into the net. The good guys won game two 28-24, and thus the whole match. It was an all round effort from the team and the fantastic support from the campers, foremost amongst those were ETHAN WEISS, JUSTIN OLSON and JOSH STONE, who got everyone fired up and enthusiastic. Thanks to everyone for a great game.

Dance Night by Justin Schoeneman

The 7th July was Campfire Dance Night presented by JONAH WEISS. The dances were hot (and cool at the same time) and most importantly very tasteful. To begin the night off, cabin 3 surprised us all with ZACH BEN-ISVY's cool moves and JACOB SMITH's smile, they were bound to win; and so they did with the fun song, "Call me maybe" by Carly Rae Jenson. The older boys, intermediates and seniors, also did exceptionally well. ISAAC WEISS from cabin twelve and his creative twist on his dance stood out quite well, along with CHASE WEIMAN's Hora dance for his Bar mitzvah. Cabin thirteen did a good job with their hip-hop style choreography, but it was cabin 7 who took the victory with their rendition of camp's favorite song this year "wiggles" by Jason Derulo. KYLE-MION SPIESZ, MICHA SCHULMAN, JACK BEHAR, DANIEL MALIS, LEVI PASIKOV and ETHAN HOTT showed the audience exactly how the "Wiggle" is done and TAYLOR BEAUSEIGNEUR had everybody in hysterics with his exaggerated moves. It was definitely a campfire that will be remembered. Everyone left Wasserman Hall trying to do the "wiggles!" Well done to everyone who participated and enjoy your free canteens!

Minnesota Trip by Ross Fisher

30th June and it was the beginning of the highly anticipated trip week! Cabin thirteen gathered all their essentials and hit the road in the grey van with high expectations. "I can't wait to buy some shoes." said DANIEL DRISCOLL. After a five hour journey we arrived in Minnesota and we were delighted to find out how nice our hotel was. Once we got settled in, we went to the Twins game. We had such a great time there even though the Twins lost 6-1.

DANIEL DRISCOLL and I met a new friend named Arnaud while at the game too. The following day we headed to Valley Fair which is an amusement park. JULIUS ONI was ecstatic to go on every ride while MAX ENGEL, on the other hand, was afraid of heights. There was also a lazy river at the park that we all went in and it was nice and relaxing. We were having such a good time that it was difficult for us to leave when it turned 2:00pm. After Valley Fair we stopped at the Mall of America; it's the biggest mall in America. We all split and went our separate ways. At the mall MAX ZLATNIKOV was on the hunt for some KD 7's (trainers). It turned out that they didn't exist and Max walked around for an hour for nothing, which was funny. Daniel and I then went to Qdoba, a Mexican Grill Restaurant for some delicious burritos. The whole cabin started texting each other organizing a meet up at the Microsoft store so we could play a game called Fifa 14. After the game, we all watched the USA vs. Belgium World Cup game. JAKE HERMAN was very upset about the game as the USA lost, so for dinner we went to Hooters. We had a lovely meal and opted to watch a movie straight after. Most of us watched "Think like a man 2," while MAX WEIGHGARDT and ZACH SCHWARTZ watched "Transformers 4." Neither parties liked their movies too much, but they were with great company so it didn't really matter. The next day we stopped at the Mall of America again to buy EVA a surprise gift, some play-sand, and that marked the end of our time in Minnesota. Our list of purchases included Jerseys, Hats and even a foot massager! On the way back we stopped at a Pizza Hut. JAKE CZUPEK loved his meal as he's a big pizza fan and that summed up our whole trip. We had an amazing time and we would like to thank Steve and Bari for giving us this unforgettable opportunity.
