

The Menominee Megaphone

August 3rd, 2016 – The NBA All-Star Issue

Menominee NBA All-Star Weekend by Charlie Kanter

Menominee NBA all-star weekend was a blast. The campers competed in three different parts of the competition; the skills challenge, the three point contest and the dunk contest. The skills challenge tested the participant's ball handling, and passing and finishing ability. For the Juniors, JACK CARTER ended up heading COOPER SPECTOR. In the Intermediate age group, JAKE MATLESS cruised to a victory for cabin 11. Finally, the division came down to a three-way tie between KASE RATZLAFF, JOEY FINFER and AIDAN BRAMWIT. During the second round, KASE RATZLAFF blazed through the course in 13.12 seconds to win for his cabin, 13. The next event was the three point contest; This tested the participants on how consistent they were at shooting the ball. For the Juniors, GRIFFIN BRAMWIT, could not miss and won by scoring 14/20. For the Intermediate age group, JACK KAPLAN of cabin 12, scored 11/20, which he won for his cabin and then there was the Senior division. The Seniors found themselves in a sudden death shoot-out between VAUGHN FRANKEL and REMY DOYLE. Vaughn sank a "clutch three" which is what led him to win for his cabin 12. Lastly, there was the dunk contest; this is how well you can perform a dunk. DAVID FINFER started the win off for his cabin, 6, by throwing down a powerful jam. LEO NECHLESS won for cabin 12 in the Intermediate age group by throwing a 360 degree, off the backboard "ally-ooop" to MAX BEERMANN which got them full marks 30/30. The seniors took this part of the competition very seriously; ADAM MASSELLO, ROBBIE YASTROW and JOEY FINFER, for cabin 9, looked fantastic as they dressed for the occasion. They are featured in the photo. GAVIN BRAMWIT got 30/30 for catching a lob and slamming down a reverse jam and JONAH GAGERMAN caught a "between the leg of the side of the backboard pass" from AIDAN BRAMIWT and finished, also with a 30/30 score. Senior cabin won the dunk contest for their age group.

Green and White Update!

The competition is still going strong. We have another five days left, so there is still time to win if you are currently not in the lead. Since playing Creatively Acquire the Energy Source there have been three more games played. Please see the scores below:

Midnight Manhunt – 42 – Green
41 - White

Bari's Biffs – 204 - Green
188 - White

Menominee Monopoly – 1hr 2 minutes, 59 seconds – White
1hr 3 minutes, 18 seconds – Green

Counselor Hunt – 566 White
79 - Green

Weather Report

Sunny – 78%
Humidity – 60%

Riddle of the Day

What sport has four letters, is played all around the world, and begins with a T?

Ask Harj, the Megaphone Editor, for the answer.

Counselor Profile

NAME: Pete Cole

AGE: 23

ACTIVITIES: Waterfront

FAVOURITE SPORT: Rugby

FAVOURITE ATHLETE: Johnny Wilkinson

FAVOURITE SONG: Rob Zombie- Dragula

FAVOURITE MOVIE: Jackass

Camper Interview

Name? Griffin Bramwit

Cabin? 6

How many years have you been at CM? 2

What is your favourite moment at camp so far? Beating Kawaga

What is your favourite part of the day at camp? I enjoy Twilight League the most. I love playing Softball and even more when it is played competitively. Also, Softball is a lot of fun too. I play with a lot of my friends, but at camp I can be seen playing Softball usually with JACK KAPLAN and JOSH BARSKY.

Midnight Manhunt by Joey Finfer

It was a beautiful night when Jason called us in to Wasserman Hall. BRANDON PTASZNIK and JOSH STONE let us know that we would be playing Midnight Manhunt. This game is played after canteen and flag. One team will go on offense first. That team can hide anywhere within camp boundaries. Their job is to not be caught by the opposing team. They need to stay hidden for 25 minutes. . In Wasserman Hall, the defense team, wait patiently for five minutes for the other team to hide, and then go to Canteen to get the squirt bottles.

On defense your main job is to walk around camp and squirt people that are hiding. If you do manage to stay in the woods for 25 minutes, you're worth one point. But, in the gully between the Mess Hall and the tennis courts there is something called the "ring of fire". If you are able to get in the ring of fire you are worth five points. Around the ring you have five jail guards that can be quite difficult and challenging to get past. SAM MILLER AND ISAAC WEISS did "Rock, Paper, Scissors" for who will go on offense first and who will be on defense first. ISAAC WEISS won and chose offense first. BENJIE SOREN took LOUIE KANTER, RONEN SAREMBOCK, and JON WOOL to go hide-out in the woods together. Another small group, DAVID FINFER, GAVIN PICKLIN, ADAM MASSELLO, TJ MOCK and myself, were not caught and went to hide in the woods by the golf course. JOSH GOODMAN wanted a try a ring-of-fire-rush, so he assigned some younger kids to rush. Sadly, none of those campers made it. 25 minutes were up and it was time to change sides. The Greens got their turn on offense. They did not do well on defense so they had one choice and that was rush the ring of fire with their whole team. It was no time before 25 people started rushing from Old Counselor's Road. Right when that happened another group came from the service road. There was so many people and a moment of havoc, but JOSH SANDLER walked in to the ring successfully without being squirted. It was a good rush they got seven kids in all together. LEVI PASIKOV said some people did not rush. He went looking but couldn't find anyone. It turns out there was a group hiding at the ski shed that included, CALEB SAKS, ROBBY YASTROW, GAVIN MILLER, and GAVIN BRANWIT. With a few other people that didn't rush it looked to be a tie. Until JOEY MATGOUS came running to the judges telling them that he hadn't been squirted. The next day we were called into Wass Hall to hear the final score. 42-41 Green. JOEY MATGOUS won Midnight Manhunt for the Greens!