August 2nd, 2017 - The Mannequin Madness Edition

Mannequin Madness By Editors

Last night in Wasserman Hall, the Green and White event Mannequin Madness took place. In this event, the overall captains are responsible for orchestrating a themed dress up night. Each team dresses up five campers or counselors in a way that fits into their theme. The twist: Other campers must dress the individual while they remain completely still. The White team's theme involved characters from the iconic TV show, "The Office". AUGIE FLICK was dressed up as Dwight Schrute, DAVID SAROWITZ as Oscar, SPENCER AUSLANDER as Kevin, JACOB SCHNEIDER as Pam and ALEX STELTZER as Jim. The Green Team opted to dress their five individuals as different WWE wrestlers. ZACH DANZINGER was dressed as the Big Show, BECKETT DOYLE as The Undertaker, BRADY WEISS as John Cena, HARRY STEINER as Steve Austin and LEO NECHELES as The Rock. Both teams' overall captains did a great job creating their themes and leading their teams. The themes were original and extremely funny. This Mannequin Madness was a huge success, great job overall captains!

Creatively Acquire the Energy Source with a Twist By Editors

On the second morning of Green and White, the teams laced up their cleats and headed out to Woody's Pitch for a game of Creatively Acquire. However, this year's edition of the classic camp game came with a twist that abolished the traditional stale mate. After the mosquitoes finished their countdown as nobody touched the energy source, the participants from each team lined up three-quarters of the field away from their starting lines. The teams alternated turns to start with the energy source and play resumed as if one team had picked it up and was trying to score three points. As a result, the game was filled with exciting new strategy and action. The Greens took the first game in decisive fashion behind key boosts from CASEY PIEPER, JACK MYERTHALL, and BECKETT DOYLE. In game two, the Whites jumped out to a large lead after a very entertaining stalemate involving the entire senior cabin swung the momentum as JOEY FINFER, GAVIN MILLER, and WILL FRIEDMAN ran a football play en route to three points. The Greens led an inspired comeback after being down 19-11 to bring the score to 20-18, but the Whites held on to force a tie-breaking third game. Game Three was a thriller as both teams had a chance to win on the last point. After a stalemate was called, it was the Greens' turn to start with the energy source. Captain HARRIS GREENBAUM took advantage of this and juked out the White team captains to secure the decisive three points for his team. The Greens have surged to a 3-1 lead in events played but there is still a long way to go!

KYLE MION-SPIESZ runs with the energy source while being chased down by REMY DOYLE. This year's game had many more chases like this because of new rules regarding stalemates.

16A Hockey By Noah Lazarus
Menominee 10, Kawaga 3

Day 1 of the competition got underway with the 11A and 11B hockey games. Those games were exciting, but it was the 16 under hockey games everyone was waiting for! With GAVIN MILLER in goal, the boys were ready for battle. The starting five consisted of ROBBIE YASTROW, JOEY FINFER, WILL FRIEDMAN, REMY DOYLE and CONNOR WALL. Early on, the boys were off to a slow start due to a lot of penalties being called. However, the team shook it off and went up 5-0 early in the game. Due to great production from bench players TODD LAZARUS, BEN ZELKEN and LOGAN ROSENGARD, the team was able to further expand their lead throughout the game. When the final whistle blew, Team Menominee was up 10-3. It was a great effort from everyone who played in the game. Until next year Kawaga!

13 and under Tennis By Max Zlatnikov
Menominee 5, Kawaga 0

The 13 under tennis team wanted to come out strong against the other camp from the west. ILAN SHELEST played as the first-seeded singles player and won his match 6-1 in under 30 minutes. He played his game with elegance and intensity, not letting the opposing player return his mighty serve. The best doubles team of JACK FORMAN and JACK KAPLAN were not experienced tennis players, however they hit countless great shots that the other team couldn't return. They won their match 6-2. RYDER SPECTOR and SAM GOODMAN won 6-3, rarely missing a serve and being aggressive at the net. CHARLIE RATTERMAN won 6-2 using his powerful serve and great ground strokes to out-class his competition. Finally, an amazing third-seeded singles match was played by BECKETT DOYLE. His match went into an intense tie-breaker, but BECKETT kept his cool and came out on top. Congrats to the 13 under tennis team for sweeping their kids back to the west.

13D Volleyball By Ross Festenstein and Jeremy Kohlenbrener
Kawaga 2, Menominee 0

Down on the beach volleyball court, the 13D volleyball team came out ready to play. HENRY LEVIN served first and all throughout the match Kawaga's team had trouble returning his serves. In the front row, SAM GOODMAN, BEN MANN and JARED AGUILAR kept tipping balls back over the net while also standing ready to block any weak returns. SETH SCHOR, JEREMY ZELKEN, COLE SO-ROSKY, and ANDREW DRENNAN kept the back row solid, keeping the score close. The first game went back and forth until the end and unfortunately CM fell short, losing 21-19. HENRY served his way to an early 9-0 lead in game two, but Kawaga went on a run of their own and took the second game 21-16. The end result didn't reflect the will and skill of the Menominee men, but it just wasn't our day. A big shout out to REED DAVIS, ELI LUNDY, CADEN PERLMAN, and JOSH KENNEDY for preventing balls from landing in Sand Lake and encouraging the team with their cheers.
