GOOOOOOOOAAAAAL!!!!!!

By Cooper Spector, Nate Beermann, Marc Singer and Charlie Ratterman

In the midst of a jam-packed summer of soccer, it's only fitting that the evening campfire revolved around the world's most popular sport. During lunch, JASON announced that Soccer Celebration Night would commence in Wasserman Hall later in the night. Some of the world's greatest players have well-known celebrations, and the idea was to come up with a new, creative and humorous way to show enthusiasm after scoring a goal. In the junior/intermediate age division, cabin 6 stole the show with their "pregnancy" celebration. "Pregnant counselor" JAKE PEACOCK stormed into Wasserman Hall with campers NATE BEERMANN and COOPER SPECTOR assisting him in "giving birth" to the soccer ball. Wass Hall erupted in laughter as JAKE screamed in agony during the birthing process. In the senior age division, cabins 16 and 18 put on incredible celebrations that made the judges decision very difficult. JAKE HOROWITZ and the rest of cabin 16 took off and ran straight into the lake, something we refer to at the Friendly Confines as "laking it." Cabin 18 had a theme of "goals around the world" where they celebrated for different countries. Counselor and Venezuela native CARLOS ANEZ celebrated for his home country, but the funniest moment of the night came when the Senior Cabin "celebrated" a goal for the United States. In an exhibition of exemplary taste, the celebration for the United States involved SAM MILLER, JOSH GOODMAN and the rest of the campers sitting silently, referring to the fact that the team does not score many goals. Though the vote was close, the Senior Cabin took the top prize in the senior age division. Great celebrations guys!

Leagues Have Begun!

By Editors

MCAA Leagues 2016 are officially underway! Each afternoon, the Menominee men emerge from their rest period and enter into two jam-packed competitive periods. Here, they put the skills they have learned during morning instructional periods into play. There are four league periods offered this year—Broncos, Penguins, Cavaliers and Royals. Campers compete based on their age in a variety of sports. Yesterday, at lunch, everybody cheered as JASON announced the start of Leagues. The first two periods went very well. The intensity was high out on Woody's Pitch during 13 and over football. JULIAN GANCMAN tore up the fields with his speed. At 12 and under neucomb, SAM GOODMAN was diving for the ball left and right. Campers will continue to compete with their teams to claim championship status. Overall, it should be an exciting couple of weeks in MCAA Leagues

Big Brother Kick-Off

By Editors

Last night, big brothers and little brothers assembled for an obstacle course. JOSH STONE organized a rigorous course for each pair to compete. They had to hurdle benches, army-crawl under a cargo net, go through zigzags, step through tires and make a soccer goal. Additionally, each pair had to throw a tennis ball through a cornhole and do dizzy-izzies. The latter was a favorite for many campers. GAVIN BRAMWIT-Managed to round the bases speedily despite the dizziness. Other campers, such as CHASE WEIMAN joyfully stumbled around. Dizzy-izzies are no easy feat! The course put each pair to the test and provided an excellent opportunity for big brothers and little brothers to work together. In the end, one pair did come out on top. ISAAC MILLER and JESSE KAPLAN completed the course in record time and claimed the number-one spot. Once again, a big thanks to JOSH STONE for putting on a terrific event for the campers. Great job guys!
