Everyone's settled in!

By Chinmay Javeri

After a busy two days hard at work getting everybody ready for camp, the campers are finally settled in. All cabins are as clean as a whistle and have been dusted from head to toe, and now look more like home! A special mention to JACOB SMITH, who rounded up his fellow campers after wake up and encouraged them to clean with him. Great job JACOB! Remember campers, as WOODY always says, use your initiative and camp will be a much better place!

All of the campers that arrived yesterday were greeted with an amazing welcome by all of the counselors and campers that arrived before. The welcome was full of jumping, chanting, singing and laughing as the campers scurried their way under the hand-bridge and onto Menominee soil. It was an awesome atmosphere, with everyone joining in on the fun. The whole team made the arrivals feel welcome in their home away from home, and back with the Camp Menominee family.

When everyone had moved in, it was onto the mammoth task of unpacking! Counselors and campers alike teamed up to get their stuff neat and tidy so it looks good for cabin inspection. Sports gear, clothing and all kinds of books had to be shelved and ordered. Great job to all cabins on this one, they're all looking good and definitely more camp-like. With all campers and staff set for this summer, its time to get the fun started!

A very happy birthday to JACOB 'BALLS' BARSTACK! Have a great 18th Birthday!

Candy Party!

By Chinmay Javeri

Some say it was the highlight of the day, and it was most certainly the most memorable. There's a rule in the cabins that no food is allowed, as we don't want those nasty bugs lurking around when we're sleeping. The solution was that all of the cabins had brought their leftover food and candy to Wasserman Hall, where everything was shared in four minutes of madness. Before we started, TOM and PAM ADLER's trained sniffer dog LEON checked to see if anyone had hidden candy in their pockets, and found that TERRY JONES and JULIUS ONI both had candy stuffed in their pockets. Unlucky guys! At Menominee, we're into inclusion and not exclusion, and it was great to see all cabins sharing out their candy together. Nice work Menominee!

Getting Ready For Activities

By Chinmay Javeri

On Monday afternoon, the campers chose their 'Final Four' activities. This is a selection of four instructional activities that you campers will follow for the next few weeks. These activities are there to help you get better, and to teach you new things. The list to choose from was large and varied, and everyone was spoilt for choice this year. Archery and Riflery was a big favorite, along with Baseball and Softball. Climbing was also quite a popular choice, especially for you thrill-seekers that love zip-lining down from the wall. There's a lot to do here, so be sure to pick new sports next time!
