THE CAMP MENOMINEE MEGAPHONE

MANNEQUIN MADNESS EDITION

JULY 31, 2021

Mannequin Madness by Alec Gau

Continuing the camp-wide competition, both teams attempted to dress a mannequin for success on a cool, summer evening. Mannequin Madness was the event, and the objective of the game was to dress two people in a certain theme or style that is determined by the overall captains. But there is a catch; the person being dressed cannot move and only the person dressing them can move them. The White Team chose the creative theme of Adam Sandler, and began by dressing REID PARKS as Happy Gilmore, and COOPER BORSTEIN as Adam Sandler in another of his movies. The Green Team took a more camp-oriented approach, and for their theme they chose to represent former Nate Wasserman Award winners. Perhaps their best show of style was when they decorated CHARLIE

REID PARKS doing his best Happy Gilmore impression.

EISENBERG as Ethan Weiss, wearing his signature basketball jersey and backwards hat, doing one of Ethan's iconic poses. HUNTER SMITH was also featured as a mannequin, sporting a class ANDREW BLECHMAN fit of a tank, shorts, and a flat brimmed hat. Judges RYAN FIRMIN, TYLER LONGNECKER, and GAVIN BRAMWIT were very impressed. Both teams performed very well, giving great speeches and showing better fashion knowledge. However, in the end, the Green Team took it by a score of 2 – 1. It was a close call, but the Green Team did have great fits with a theme that was just too good to pass up. With this event in the books, the Grenians broke the tie of the overall event score ever so slightly, taking the lead going into the rest of the competition.

CHARLIE EISENBERG dressed as Ethan Weiss, the resemblance is uncanny.

Underground Trivia Club by Zach

'Zeke' Quen

As the 5-year club was escorted to Denoyers Supper Club, the ones who stayed behind were deliberately separated into even teams for an underground trivia night! These teams created their own team names and the night got underway. With thirty-five questions chosen from a secret list only seen by few, it was sure to be a great night of trivia. We started off with a few sport questions such as "What NFL team has the most super bowl appearances?" Camper CHASE KAPLAN ran up to me saying "what if there are two teams tied?" thinking he easily knew the answer. The correct answer was in fact the New England Patriots and only a few teams got the question right. The sports questions were then followed with some general knowledge, science, space, and of course, camp trivia! As the night went on, campers DYLAN COHEN and TYLER FIELD were having such a good time they wanted to keep going, but it took us so long to slowly perfect the 35 questions, we didn't have the time to get an extra perfect one. The night concluded, and after adding up the scores there could only be one winner, naturally. The time was too late to continue and there ended up being a tie for first, so there were two winners this time. With the winners being, drumroll please..... "Sid's Sexy Snakes" led by SID VADNERKAR and "The Bustas" led by BRODY SHEFFREN. The night concluded just before a storm came across Camp Menominee, and everyone made it back to their cabins safely. It was a fun introduction to the Underground Trivia Club, and I'm sure everybody would be excited for a round two in the future.

by Fernando

This second session has brought a few new things to Camp Menominee. We got new climbers, new records and a bigger climbing community. At the end of the first session the climbing tower hosted the first climb under the stars night. We got some headlamps, snacks, beverages, music and climbers spent 2 hours climbing in the dark. In the Junior division the new record on the Rock Face has been set by DYLAN GANGEL with 1:58. DYLAN has expressed interest in breaking the Jungle challenge record as well and he is training for that. For the Intermediate division on the Rock Face JOEY HAZAN doing a time of 1:13 pushed GABE CARREON to a second place. At the same time JOEY HAZAN still has the first place for the Jungle Challenge with an incredible time of 0:57 seconds. JOEY has expressed his intentions of breaking the Seniors records as well. Good luck JOEY. The Senior division has had an interesting second session so far. The old times record lasted 6 years before being broken, and that was done by JOSH JAFFE who has worked very hard to bring his time down at 0:39 seconds for the Rock Face, Good job JOSH! He is still working hard to bring his time even lower and his aiming to reduce at least five more seconds. The race between SANTI and MILES continues, with MILES in first place, in a time of 0:46 seconds followed by SANTI with 0:48 seconds. They still have some more time to race and we hope they keep injure free until the end of the session. Congrats to the guys who have reached to the top during this second session: MAX VERGES, DYLAN GANGEL, ASHER AVADEK, BRADEN TINGLER, JACK GOERRING, ADAM SZUYGIEL, ZACH FORMAN, ROGER MILLER, MICHAEL LYNCH, ARJUN MOSER, COOPER WELLEN, JACK FREIDMAN, DYLAN HIRSCH, WILL SIMKINS.

The Menominee Mix-Up by ????????????

To the Peaceful Pioneer,

Your points are particular, but your lines aint' perpendicular. Everyone knows Chicken Kiev is the best camp meal. It's delicious, nutritious, and supercalafragilicious. My bars can't contain the flavor sustained. Ancient scholars named it the buttery golden chicken nugget, but come a little closer and I'll tell you a secret. Chicken Kiev is the most delicious camp meal, no question as far as anyone's recollection. I conclude my column with a line that'll get all the campers callin'. Chicken Kiev is the greatest, no disrespect, check Cabin 12 cement if you suspect my bars are the best mic drop.

Best Regards,

The Menominee Maestro
