

Chicago Baggage Guide Summer 2024

Below we will be introducing the options for Chicago Area families for baggage transportation this summer.

As per usual, we do not allow bags to be brought onto the bus (with limited exceptions including 2-week rookie travel home). As such, families will have two options: 1) Camp Baggage Express, 2) Ship Camps.

(Note: If you are dropping your son off at camp, you can bring his bags with you.)

Camp Baggage Express

How It Works : Bags will be brought to camp by CBE, but you must drop off and pick up your bags in the specific windows mentioned in on page 2.

Price: $199 Round Trip or $110 One Way per Camper (each camper can ship 2 duffel bags and a sleeping bag).

CAMP BAGGAGE EXPRESS PROCESS:

- 1) Go to their website at campbaggageexpress.net and navigate to “Pay Online”
- 2) Register your camper and bags and pay for the service.
- 3) As camp gets closer you will get tags shipped to you. You’ll pack your camper’s bags, tag them, and drop them off at the designated location noted below during the time window.
- 4) You will pick your campers bags up on the date and time noted below after your son’s session.

Each camper is allowed to ship two duffel bags and one sleeping bag.

CAMP BAGGAGE EXPRESS WILL NOT ACCEPT FOR SHIPMENT ANY CAMPER DUFFEL

BAGS LONGER THAN 42 INCHES AND/OR WEIGHING HEAVIER THAN 75 LBS

Ship Camps

How It Works : Your bags will get picked up from your house and dropped back off at your house by FedEx/UPS in partnership with ShipCamps

Price: Varies, but ~$119 per bag
