THE CAMP MENOMINEE MEGAPHONE

The First time for Everything Edition

Wednesday June 21, 2023

Will the Thunderbirds repeat as King of the Camp Champions?
Will the Phoenix rise to claim their 4th title?
Can the Dragons soar above the rest to claim the goblet?
Is it FINALLY the year of the Knights?

IT'S TIME FOR KING OF THE CAMP 2023!!

In an unprecedented historical Menominee event, yesterday the reigning General Managers of the defending champion Thunderbirds interrupted a perfectly pleasant lunch and literally shouted from the rooftop of the Canteen informing the camp that they will be stepping down and no longer running their beloved Thunderbirds this summer. Team members BENNETT RUE and JOSH SCHREIER were beside themselves as they watched their leaders resign, and feared for the future of the franchise. They did not have to wait long, however, because 2023 KOTC MVP RYAN MARTIN and teammate BRADY WEISS were waiting in the wings, and named Thunderbird GMs on the spot. As they took to the microphone to share their team plans with the group, the new GMs of the Phoenix, Dragons and Knights came out of nowhere to stop them! Words were exchanged, things were said that can't be unsaid, but in the end we all know there is only one way to settle this....it's King of the Camp 2023!

How to Become Confident at Camp

By Gavin Rosenthal and Huntley Citron

Hey Menominee first-year campers! Have you tried out the Greenhouse yet? You definitely should because there are so many neat things to try out such as the workout equipment and basketball. We would like to shoutout JACK KAPLAN and RYDER SPECTOR for running King of the Camp. It started out with a bang when DREW BENJAMIN and JEREMY BACH announced our teams for King of the Camp 2023! Also, a shoutout to you first-year campers that were brave enough to come to camp. Here's some advice from us to you - just be yourself and always be respectful of others.

IT'S TWILIGHT LEAGUE!!!!

"In the realm of gastronomy, where creativity and artistry intertwine, there are rare moments when a chef's creation transcends the boundaries of ordinary cuisine, leaving an indelible mark on the palate and in the hearts of food enthusiasts worldwide. Such is the case with renowned culinary maestro, Chef Jeff Toombs, whose extraordinary Baked Alaska has captivated the global dining scene, earning him a place among culinary legends. As we celebrate innovation and mastery, we turn our spotlight to Chef Toombs, whose culinary genius and passion have revolutionized the dessert landscape."

The paragraph above us may or may not have been pulled directly from a real/made up food blog in an article from 2004 featuring JEFF TOOMBS. In it, the of course famous at the time and world renound food blogger Avery Davis wrote about Jeff's work with Baked Alaska, a dessert he became known for across the culinary universe. Of course, if Jeff was so good at making this one dish he MUST make it for the entire camp. So after dinner was over, Jeff brought out a portion of his Baked Alaska sitting atop a giant steel vat from the kitchen...supposidly the home of Baked Alaska for the entire Camp...as Jeff lit the sparkler on top of the delectible dessert and began pushing the cart down the aisle...oh no...it got stuck!! As the cart came tumbling over you could see HUNTLEY CITRON gaspnig at the thought of all that dessert on the floor...but no baked goods fell out of that giant pot...ONLY SOFTBALLS. Before the boys realized what happened, JACK BEHAR bursted into the mess hall with the Trophy in hand and exclaimed "It's Twilight League!!!"
