It's Sun and Wind 2024!

by Max Kirsch

Before the Sun and Wind festivities even began, the people of the Friendly Confines had a problem they couldn't take their eyes off. For seemingly days on end, counselors FERNANDO HERNANDEZ and JAMIE RIDOUT were constantly at each other's throats. Whether it be arguing with each other's teams as general managers of Twilight League or bumping into each other and fighting in the Mess Hall, many members of our community were concerned for these guys. NICHOLAS POSTER even mentioned that he was worried about how his counselor FERNANDO is acting differently and seemed upset lately. It all started to piece together once we were called to the flag for it to be lowered. FERNANDO started to cough rather closely and directly towards JAMIE who was standing just a few feet away. JAMIE argued that there was a sickness going around and that he needs to be more careful, but FER was clearly sick of taking the verbal punches as he immediately launched a physical punch straight towards JAMIE. As the pair tried to continue their fight even after being restrained by JASON and other counselors, campers stood in shock as to what was unfolding in front of them. Cabin 3's LOGAN HAAS and BEAU MACK had some truly incredible reactions to their counselors getting in a fist fight. When the action came to a standstill, JASON decided that there was only one way to settle this problem as he exclaimed the classic line, "There's only one way to settle this... It's Sun and Wind!".

First Lazy Day by Nels Johnson

It was a phenomenal morning earlier this week in the Friendly Confines, and that's because it was Lazy Day Sunday! As usual, that means breakfast is served until 10 a.m. and consists of a beautiful spread that includes bagels, lox, and danishes. Sticking true to the 'Lazy' part of the name, there is no cabin cleanup on Sundays! This meant we were able to run directly into Cabin Activities as many cabins took the time to find and clean a campsite they could use later in the evening for hot dog cookouts. ELI BULMER, PARKER SUBRIN, and the rest of the boys in Cabin 9 took it one step further by building their fire during this time so they could get to roasting hot-dogs sooner. Cabin 17 had their own pickleball tournament in which MATTHEW HARFIELD and TONY NIKOLOV went on to win it all. In the afternoon we ran some Primetime with our favorite counselors which quickly went into hot dog cookouts and of course, Sundaes on Sunday. To round off the night we got our first-come, first-served Canteen and chowed down as the Juniors and Intermediates watched 'The Mitchells vs. The Machines'. Before we capped off the Lazy Day Sunday, WOODY led us all to the golf course as we took time to honor the Way and reflect on the week we had.

Midnight Manhunt

by Editor

Following the reveal for Sun and Wind 2024, everyone was called in to Wasserman Hall. JASON began by introducing our czars for this intra-camp competition, MAX KIRSCH and SAM GOODMAN. The czars announced the teams, and immediately after separating to different sides of Wass Hall, the energy in the room was electric. An impromptu 'Cheer-off' began unexpectedly, as BENNY GOLDBERG and LEVI BLUM of the Wind team were letting the other side of Wass Hall hear their chants. On the Sun side, NATE VASS was leading a group of twenty Juniors in all sorts of cheers to support their team. By the time everyone settled down it was time for us to take our hats off... Because it was time for Midnight Manhunt 2024! A quick clothing change, detailed rule explanation, and long distance 'Rock, Paper, Scissors' then led into the action getting underway. The Sun team was the first on the offensive. FERNANDO HERNANDEZ and his team went with a sound strategy of having some of their fastest runners go straight for the 'Ring of Fire', including Senior Cabin members RYAN MAHONEY and REMY WEIMAN. Out of the group, the only one who made it in completely dry was JOEY HAZAN, guaranteeing his team five points in the process. The next round was the truly controversial one, as RYDER SPECTOR and MATT HARFIELD came up with a plan that would require a new rule to be instituted after the fact. Half of the Wind team lined up around the circle, knowing they were unable to be squirted until the game starts. The only people allowed to be within five feet of the ring are the guards, who had no chance of being able to squirt every one of them. In a tough decision between the czars and 'Ring of Fire' guy CHARLIE EISENBERG, the Wind team's ridiculous strategy won it for them in the end.
